

PRIVACY POLICY

Last updated: August 3rd, 2020

This policy describes how Développements Isaphil Inc. (collectively, “Tyroparc”, “we”, “us” or “our”) collects, uses, and shares your personal information.

This document addresses the following points:

- What Our Privacy Policy Covers
- What We Collect
- How We Use Your Personal Information
- How We Share Your Personal Information
- How We Protect Your Information
- Your Choices
- Communicating With Us
- Changes To This Policy

What Our Privacy Policy Covers

This privacy policy discusses the “personal information” that Tyroparc obtains from you on <https://www.tyroparc.com/>, at our location, and in connection with marketing offers and partnership programs. When we use the term “personal information” we are referring to information that is about an identifiable individual. This may include things like your name, email address, mailing address, birthday, telephone number, photographs, personal images, or any profile information you share with us.

This privacy policy does not cover information that you submit on other websites, even if we communicate with you on those sites. For example, if you post something on Facebook, Twitter, or YouTube, that information is governed by the privacy policies on those websites, and is not governed by this policy.

What We Collect

The following are examples of the personal information we collect:

Booking on our website	Name, phone number, and email address
Purchasing on our website	Name, credit card number, billing address, and telephone number
Community (Group, page, Social Media pages, etc)	Any information about yourself that you choose to submit or post on our social media platforms, including but not limited to, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Youtube, and Google Business.
Sweepstakes and contests	Name, email address, and age

In addition, we may use the following technologies to automatically collect information about your activities on our websites.

- Cookies.*
- Flash Cookies.
- Web beacons, clear pixels, or pixel tags.
- Web server logs.*
- Geo-location technologies.**

Note that we do not intentionally collect any personal information from children under the age of 13. If you are under the age of 13, you can look at our websites, but you should not make a purchase, register, or submit personal information to us.

How We Use Your Personal Information

Tyroparc primarily uses the personal information that it collects to provide you with products, information, and services. We may use your information to track your purchase history, suggest products, and to contact you for account and promotional purposes. We may also use your personal information for other legitimate business purposes, including to detect and prevent fraud, to collect amounts owing to us and to maintain business records.

How We Share Your Personal Information

Tyoparc may share your personal information in the following circumstances:

- Service providers. We may share your personal information with companies that perform services for us (including affiliates acting in this capacity), such as fulfilling orders, sending postal mail and emails, analyzing customer data, providing marketing assistance, processing credit card payments, investigating fraudulent activity, conducting customer surveys, and providing customer service.
- Social Networks, Widgets, and Plug-ins. If you use any features made available to you on our website by a third party it may result in information being collected or shared between us and the third party. For example, if you use Facebook's "Like" feature, Facebook may register the fact that you "liked" a product and may post that information on Facebook.
- Other instances. Tyoparc may share your personal information in order to protect the legal rights of our company, our employees, our agents, and our affiliates, to protect the safety and security of our visitors, to detect and protect against fraud, or to comply with law or legal process.
- Business transition. Tyoparc may share your personal information with another company that buys some, or all, of the assets or stock of Tyoparc, and that company may use and disclose personal information for purposes similar to what is described in this policy. Tyoparc may also share personal information with prospective purchasers to evaluate the proposed transaction.

Tyoparc may share de-identified information (i.e., information that is not directly connected to your name) in the following circumstances in addition to those identified above:

- Aggregate information. We may share de-identified aggregate information about our customers with advertisers and marketing partners.
- Behavioral-based advertising. A third party may use technology (e.g., a cookie) to collect information about your use of our website and other websites so that they can provide advertising about products and services tailored to your interest. That advertising may appear either on our website, or on other websites.

How We Protect Your Information

The file containing your personal information is maintained on our servers or those of our service providers and is accessible by our authorized employees, agents and mandataries who require access in order to perform their job functions. We realize that our customers trust us to protect their personal information. We take that task seriously and maintain reasonable and appropriate physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to help protect your personal information. While we attempt to protect the information in our possession, no security system is perfect and we cannot promise that information about you will remain secure in all circumstances.

Your Choices

You have the following choices with how your information is used:

Your Options	What you need to do

Your right to access or correct your personal information is subject to applicable legal restrictions. We may take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.

If we need, or are required, to contact you concerning any event that involves your personal information we may do so by email, telephone, or mail.

Changes To This Policy

We may revise this policy from time to time. You should review our privacy policy periodically so that you keep up-to-date on our most current practices. We will note the effective date of the latest version at the top of each policy.

* "Cookies" are small bits of information that are placed on the hard drive of your computer. Cookies remember information about your activities on the site to make your visits to our website more enjoyable and valuable to you by providing a customized experience and recognizing your preferences when you visit our website. If you've chosen to disable cookies on your browser, some of the functionality of our website may be lost. Certain of our web pages, particularly those that require a login and password, require that cookies be enabled in your browser and cannot be used when you have disabled cookies in your browser.

 Flash cookies (also called Local Shared Objects or "LSOs") are data files similar to cookies, except that they can store more complex data. Flash cookies are used to remember settings, preferences, and usage, particularly for video, interactive gaming, and other similar services.

 Web beacons are small graphic images on a Web page or in an email that can be used for such things as recording the pages and advertisements clicked on by users, or tracking the performance of email marketing campaigns.

* Web server logs are records of activity created by the computer that delivers the web pages you request to your browser. For example, a web server log may record the search term you entered or the link you clicked to bring you the webpage. The Web server log also may record information about your browser, such as your IP address and the cookies set on your browser by the server.

 Geo-location technology refers to technologies that permit us to determine your location. We may ask you to manually provide location information on our website, or to enable your mobile device to send us precise location information. We may also automatically collect general location information from your web browser.
